

THE GOODS

1

2

3

4

Bling it

Rock your casbah with glittering baubles and gleaming bits from the bath to the front door

1 TURN IT ON Dutch designer Marcel Wanders created a series of jewel-inspired bath fixtures for Hydrology, including this glamorous bath faucet. His design mimics the mathematical facet of a diamond's cut.

Cost: Starting at $780 (in silver) and $950 (in gold). Hydrology, 435 N. LaSalle St. 312-676-3747.

2 ROCK, PAPER . . . Maya Romanoff's new Beadazzled Leaf wallpaper features embedded specks of glass and silver leaf. The wallcovering is made in the company's Skokie factory. Available in Aqua Leaf (shown), Pearly Leaf, and Sylvie Leaf.

Cost: $149 per yard. Through the trade at Donghia at The Merchandise Mart, Kinzie and Wells Streets, Suite 631. 312-822-0766.

3 GOLD LEAF A door dressing you can bling back year after year after year: the new Gold Bay Leaf Wreath from Jayson Home & Garden.

Cost: $28. 1885 N. Clybourn Ave. 800-472-1885, jaysonhomeandgarden.com.

4 GOOD GAUD Italian surfaces star Sicis introduces its ColibriBrick product, a glass tile with 24-karat gold accents. Mix different tile shapes with different textures to keep the look from becoming too gaudy.

Cost: $85 to $200 per square foot. Through the trade at Materials Marketing Showroom, 1234 W. Fulton Ave. 312-226-0222.

5 FOR REAL? These 4 3/4-inch Diamond Sculptures rank as one of Chiasso's most popular items. Use as a paperweight or a just-for-fun accent piece.

Cost: $28 each. Chiasso, 2112 N. Clybourn Ave. 773-244-4100, chiasso.com.

—Shaila Wunderlich

swunderlich@tribune.com

5

